I. INFORMATION ABOUT OUR ADVISORY SERVICES

A. Who We Are
First Command Financial Planning, Inc. has been serving American families since 1958. First Command Financial Planning, Inc. is an investment adviser and a broker-dealer registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"), the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority ("FINRA"), all 50 states, and the District of Columbia. We are a member of the Securities Investor Protection Corporation ("SIPC”).

In our capacity as an investment adviser, we offer financial planning services, investment management services and other advice to individuals and entities. We offer advice on securities, with an emphasis on mutual funds, variable annuities, variable life insurance, and municipal funds (including Section 529 Plans). Our Financial Advisors do not offer tax or legal advice. We do, however, offer you a tax preparation service through our Home Office. This fee-based tax service prepares tax returns and provides tax advice through Certified Public Accountants.

We provide personalized investment advisory services to you through locally-based trained and licensed Financial Advisors and through our Home Office in Fort Worth, Texas. Our Financial Advisors have a wide range of business and educational backgrounds. They are required to have appropriate licenses and registrations to transact business, including FINRA registration, state securities registrations and insurance licenses, and a state Investment Adviser Representative registration. Our Financial Advisors’ activities are supervised by District Advisors and Home Office personnel who are also appropriately licensed.

In our capacity as a broker-dealer, we offer mutual funds, Section 529 Plans, variable annuities, and variable life insurance products. First Command Financial Planning, Inc. will recommend itself for effecting securities transactions it recommends to clients.

B. Our Affiliated Companies
First Command Financial Services, Inc. is the parent company of First Command Financial Planning, Inc. and First Command Bank. First Command Financial Services, Inc. is a life insurance general agency licensed to sell in all 50 states, the District of Columbia, and Guam. In certain states, First Command Financial Services, Inc. is registered as a separate domestic corporation and does business in California as “First Command Insurance Services.” First Command Financial Services, Inc. offers life insurance; long term care insurance; disability income insurance; liability, property and casualty insurance; and annuities.

First Command Bank is a federally chartered savings and loan association regulated by the Office of Thrift Supervision and a member of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation ("FDIC"). Personal banking products and services offered by First Command Bank include checking and savings accounts, money market accounts, certificates of deposit, mortgage loans, automobile loans, secured and unsecured personal loans, debt consolidation loans, credit and debit cards, online banking services, and trust services. Commercial banking products and services offered by First Command Bank include commercial checking accounts, money market savings accounts, commercial loans, business credit and debit cards and online banking services.

C. Advisory Agreements
In order to obtain financial planning or other investment advisory services from First Command Financial Planning, Inc., you will be required to enter into an Investment Advisory Agreement. An Investment Management Agreement will also be required for clients opening an Asset Management Solutions account (Core Investment Program™ or Select Investor Program™). These agreements are designed to help clearly define the roles and responsibilities that you have as a client and that First Command has as a service provider. One clause in each agreement discusses how disputes between you and First Command will be resolved. The agreements require that you submit a dispute to either mediation or arbitration. By consenting to mediation or arbitration, you are not waiving any of the protections afforded to you by federal or state securities laws, rules or provisions.

First Command may update its service offerings from time to time; however, it will continue to honor its obligations under agreements entered into with existing clients until notice is provided otherwise. Existing clients who choose to take advantage of new offerings may be required to sign a new agreement.

You can also request a copy of this brochure by writing to the address above. We will mail this brochure to you within seven (7) days of receiving your request.

E. Our Financial Planning Services
We work collaboratively with you and encourage you to be an active participant in all financial planning discussions. In preparing your financial plan, our Financial Advisors will gather detailed information from you to determine your existing financial condition, attitudes, goals, risk tolerance and planning horizon. We rely on you to provide us with your complete financial situation, goals and needs, as well as any updates to your situation.
The financial plan will aim to meet your objectives and will be based upon your unique situation. Prior to being presented to you, your financial plan will be carefully reviewed and approved by a series of financial professionals. When we present your financial plan, you determine whether to implement any of the recommendations provided and are under no obligation to purchase any product through First Command Financial Planning, Inc. or its affiliates.

A fee is assessed for our financial planning services for new clients. This fee is for the services, experience and judgment of our Financial Advisors, as well as the effort involved in creating and executing your financial plan. The fee is divided among your Financial Advisor, the financial professionals who supervise the development of your financial plan, and First Command Financial Planning, Inc.

Your plan may include recommendations for risk management (insurance), wealth accumulation and management (investments), and cash management (banking) depending on your unique situation. There is no advisory fee charged to personal financial planning clients for the risk-management portion of the financial plan.

Should you desire to implement the recommendations in your financial plan, you may also incur additional fees and charges such as asset management fees (including those charged by First Command’s Core Investment Program and Select Investor Program), mutual fund sales charges, commissions, or bank fees. You will receive an estimate of such additional fees and charges at the time the financial plan is presented to you. These fees are separate from our financial planning fees, and are discussed in further detail later in this brochure.

A description of each planning service we offer and its associated initial fees is provided below:

- First Command Gold Client Services. These services and plans are intended for middle income clients in the asset accumulation phase of their financial life, and through ultimate retirement, and include survivor plans. The plan includes complete financial goals and risk analysis, and may provide comprehensive recommendations for risk, cash and wealth accumulation and management depending on your unique situation. The initial fee for this service will be between $900 and $2,000 and is valid for 12 months. The fee is negotiable and will be dependent on the complexity of the client’s financial situation.

- First Command Platinum Client Services. These services and plans are intended for high net worth clients (clients with more than $150,000 in annual income or greater than $250,000 in investable liquid assets) in the asset accumulation phase of their financial life. Platinum Client services include all of the features of the Gold Client, and may also include introductory estate planning and recommendations for asset management accounts, trust services, and personal banking services. The initial fee for this service will be between $1,800 and $3,600 and is valid for 12 months. The fee is negotiable and will be dependent on the complexity of the client’s financial situation.

- First Command Platinum Premium Client Services. These services and plans are intended as comprehensive retirement income and estate transfer plans for high net worth clients and include asset transfer planning, trust planning, trust management, gifting, charitable giving, generation skipping planning, IRA beneficiary planning, and personal banking. The initial fee for this service will be between $3,000 and $6,000 and is valid for 12 months. The fee is negotiable and will be dependent on the complexity of the client’s financial situation.

- "A la carte" Services. These services are available for a fee based on the complexity of the service. A la carte services (including the Foundations Plan described below) do not include ongoing service for 12 months and other services which are applicable to clients who purchase First Command Gold, Platinum or Platinum Premium Services. A la carte services (excluding the Foundations Plan) do not represent, and are not intended to be, a complete financial plan. An a la carte service recommendation in one area stands alone, and may be different than one made in the context of a complete financial plan that considers all components of the client’s individual and family status and prioritized goals. As such, the most appropriate recommendation may not be achieved.

- Foundations Plan. The Foundations Plan is an assessment offered as an a la carte service. It differs from other a la carte services in that it is a bundle of services that form a basic but complete integrated plan. The Foundations Plan is intended for those clients who are just beginning to plan for their financial future and will include an analysis of financial goals and risks, and may provide recommendations for wealth accumulation and management (investments), cash management (banking), and risk management (insurance). The fee for a Foundations Plan will range from $300 to $750. The fee is negotiable and will be dependent on the complexity of your financial situation.

- First Command Business Owner Client Services. These services and plans are intended for business owners concentrating on their business and include business continuity planning, key person insurance, buy-sell agreements, multiple life disability and long term care coverage, retirement plans and other employer benefits. Additional information on business planning services, including fees, will be provided to business owners in the First Command Business Planning Description of Services.

In addition to the above planning services, we may provide investment advisory services to clients without providing a financial plan and without charging a fee for advisory services. Such services may include debt reduction recommendations, setting up appropriate savings programs through banking products, insurance and investments.

Renewal Financial Planning Fees. The initial fee for financial planning services for First Command Gold, Platinum, Platinum Premium, and Business Owner Client Services is valid for one year. All renewal fees for subsequent years will be negotiable and based on the complexity of the client’s financial situation and Advisor expectations regarding the amount of effort needed to keep the financial plan up to date. The renewal fee will be calculated in the same manner as the initial fee; except that the minimum renewal fee will be no less than one-third (⅓) of the initial fee.

Discounts. First Command may discount, reduce or waive fees for financial planning services at its sole discretion.

F. Asset Management Solutions – Core Investment Program™ and Select Investor Program™

As a registered investment adviser, First Command Financial Planning, Inc. sponsors two Asset Management Solutions, the Core Investment Program and the Select Investor Program. These programs require that you grant First Command Financial Planning discretionary authority to manage your invested assets.

Should you decide to participate in either the Core Investment Program or the Select Investor Program, your First Command Advisor will assist you in selecting one or more of the following model portfolios based on information you provide concerning your specific financial circumstances, including your investment objectives and risk tolerance. The portfolios offered are listed in order from least to greatest risk:

- Capital Preservation Model (lowest risk): This model is suitable for investors who have short-term goals (1-3 years), can tolerate very little risk, desire current income and want to safeguard principal. The majority of the portfolio is invested in fixed income assets with little exposure to equities.
• Conservative Growth Model: This model is suitable for investors who have short-term to intermediate goals (3-5 years), want some growth potential but prefer modest volatility, and desire current income. The portfolio consists mostly of fixed income assets, but with a secondary emphasis on the potential for growth of principal through equities.

• Moderate Growth Model: This model is suitable for investors who have intermediate goals (5-8 years), are willing to sacrifice some potential for growth in exchange for less exposure to market volatility and desire some current income. The portfolio consists of an almost even mix of equities and fixed income assets.

• Wealth Building Model: This model is suitable for investors who have intermediate to long-term goals (7-10 years) and are seeking to build wealth using a diversified approach which may sacrifice some potential for growth in exchange for less exposure to market volatility. The portfolio consists mostly of equities.

• High Growth Model: This model is suitable for investors who have long-term goals (10 years or more), are seeking the highest potential return for a long-term investment, and can accept the risks of market fluctuation. It still maintains some of the risk reduction benefits of investments in fixed income assets, although only to a small degree.

• Aggressive Growth Model (greatest risk): Like the high growth model, this model is suitable for investors who have long-term goals (10 years or more), are seeking the highest potential return for a long-term investment, and are willing to accept more risk and the effects of market fluctuation. This portfolio consists almost entirely of equities.

The model portfolios consist of mutual funds and are designed using asset allocation and diversification strategies to help you pursue investment opportunities and manage risk. For each of the model portfolios listed above taxable and tax-sensitive options are offered. Additional model portfolios may be added over time.

Our Investment Oversight Committee is responsible for continuously reviewing the investments within the model portfolios. A mutual fund may be replaced at any time we determine it no longer meets the requirements of the model portfolio. Reasons for replacement may include change of investment objective, manager, or fund performance. Replacing a mutual fund will be a taxable event in non-tax qualified accounts and could create a capital gain or loss.

Our Investment Management Team will periodically rebalance your account. Rebalancing will be accomplished by selling over-weighted investment assets and purchasing corresponding amounts of under-weighted investment assets. We may schedule rebalancing to allow for payment of fees, estimated taxes or withdrawals prior to rebalancing. Rebalancing may cause taxable events in non-tax qualified accounts and could create a taxable gain or loss.

On at least an annual basis, your Financial Advisor will attempt to schedule a financial review with you to review your account. During reviews, your personal financial information will be updated. Reviews may also be conducted more frequently if requested by you, or if a periodic report raises questions about your portfolio. You should contact your Financial Advisor any time a material change in your circumstances occurs which might affect the manner in which your assets should be invested. A revised model portfolio recommendation will be made, if changes to your circumstances warrant.

Your Financial Advisor will be available for consultation regarding the management of your account(s). First Command Bank, as custodian, is also available to you for operational and administrative questions.

Services. The following services are included as part of the Core Investment Program and the Select Investor Program:

- Asset Management (as described above)
- Quarterly account statements that will include all investment positions, market values and transactions.
- Annual tax reports for use in preparing federal and state tax returns.
- Quarterly portfolio performance report.
- Quarterly economic and market summary available through Command Center™.
- No-cost First Command Bank Checking and Money Market Savings Accounts (overdraft, stop-payment, and similar fees may apply).

In addition to the above services, Select Investor Program clients will also receive:

- Enhanced diversification of assets*
- Option for automatic bill payment
- Option for payment of estimated tax
- Option to receive monthly account statements instead of quarterly account statements

*Diversification refers to a strategy designed to reduce exposure to risk by combining a variety of investments which are unlikely to all increase or decrease in value at the same time. In order to provide you enhanced diversification, Select Investor Program portfolios will contain additional or different mutual funds that are not contained in the Core Investment Program. In general, Select Investor Program portfolios contain approximately 11-15 different mutual funds from various fund families, while Core Investor Program portfolios contain approximately 8-10 different mutual funds from various fund families.

When you elect to move assets into the Core Investment Program or Select Investor Program, your existing investment accounts must be liquidated in order to invest the proceeds. It is possible that the liquidation of the investment accounts could create a taxable event for you. Depending on the cost basis of those accounts, you could have a gain or loss which may affect your tax situation. First Command Tax Services can calculate the cost basis for any proposed asset and provide you with this information to assist you make your decision. You are charged for the cost of this tax basis calculation, but are refunded up to 30% of that cost if you transfer those assets into the Core Investment Program or the Select Investor Program. We encourage you to carefully explore your tax situation with your tax advisor.

Minimum Account Requirements. The minimum initial requirement to participate in the Core Investment Program is $50,000 per registration type. The minimum initial requirement to participate in the Select Investor Program is $100,000 per registration type. Core Investment Program accounts that fall below $40,000 and Select Investor Program accounts that fall below $80,000 due to withdrawals may be liquidated and the proceeds sent to the owner.

Asset Management Fees. This is the fee we charge for the day-to-day management and oversight of your Core Investment Program or Select Investor Program account. Fees are non-negotiable, and will be assessed quarterly in arrears based on assets under management as of the last day of each calendar quarter. Fees will be assessed to the termination date of the account. There are no per-transaction fees.

The annual asset management fee for the Core Investment Program will be calculated as follows:

We reserve the right to maintain prior fee schedules for existing clients and to offer fee discounts to our employees or employees of our affiliates.

Other Program Costs. In addition to the asset management fee discussed above, you will pay certain fees charged to you by the underlying mutual funds in which we invest your assets. Mutual fund shares will be purchased at Net Asset Value ("NAV") without custodian fees. Institutional class shares will be used if the mutual fund selected offers an institutional class of shares. Institutional shares generally have a lower expense ratio than non-institutional shares. Pursuant to various distribution agreements, First Command Financial Planning may receive Rule 12b-1 distributions or service payments from mutual fund companies. Any 12b-1 payments received will be credited to your account(s).

The Core Investment Program or Select Investor Program may cost more or less than purchasing such services separately. Some factors that bear upon the relative cost of the programs are:

- Ability for you to purchase fund shares outside of the program at NAV based on existing mutual fund relationships.
- Elimination of separate custodian fees.
- Payment of management fee.
- Tax impact of transferring assets from one fund to another to meet asset allocation goals.

If you currently own assets in a systematic investment plan, or any other mutual fund, you may have other alternatives with lower fees than moving those assets into the Core Investment Program or Select Investor Program.

Compensation to Your Advisor. Both First Command Financial Planning and your Financial Advisor will receive a portion of the asset management fee. Our Financial Advisors will receive from 30 to 40 percent of the fees paid from your account. This compensation is paid to Advisors for consultation and other services to you. The amount paid to your Advisor is initially less than if you had purchased the same funds outside the program. However, for assets remaining in the program for the long term, your Advisor’s compensation may be more than would be received if you had purchased the funds outside the program.

Execution of Securities Transaction. We execute your mutual fund transactions pursuant to the discretionary authority you initially granted us. Transactions are conducted directly with mutual fund companies, or, as necessary, in coordination with our brokerage services through distribution agreements with various mutual fund companies. We are not a related person to a general partner in any partnership in which you are solicited to invest, and do not conduct principal or cross transactions.

Responsibility to Vote Proxies. We maintain a Proxy Voting Policy which reflects our duty as a fiduciary to vote proxies in your best interests. We receive proxies on behalf of your holdings in the Core Investment Program and Select Investor Program. In the event of a material conflict of interest with proxies related to your holdings, we will generally vote in support of the recommendations made by the Fund’s Board of Directors. We maintain relevant and appropriate proxy records as part of our Proxy Voting Policy. If you would like to receive a copy of our Proxy Voting Policy or specific voting records related to your holdings, please write to:
Senior Manager, Asset Management Solutions
Attn: Proxy Voting Policy
1 FirstComm Plaza, Fort Worth, TX 76109-4999

Termination. Both you and First Command have the right to terminate your asset management relationship at any time with 30 days written notice to the other party. Upon termination, assets will remain in the First Command Bank custodial account until specific liquidation or transfer instructions are received from you in good order. If we terminate the asset management relationship and you do not provide appropriate transfer or liquidation instructions to First Command Bank by the end of the 30 day notice period, First Command Bank may liquidate your account and deliver the proceeds to you by issuance of a check for the full amount of the proceeds, less any appropriate management fees.

G. Commissions, Fees and Other Costs for Non-Advisory Services
You should be aware that the following commissions, fees and other costs may be applicable should you desire to implement recommendations made to you by First Command Financial Planning, Inc. These fees and charges are in addition to and separate from any financial planning or other advisory fees.

Commissions from Insurance and Mutual Fund Investments. Typically, there are no out of pocket sales charges paid by you for the purchase of insurance products. Nonetheless, we may receive commissions for your insurance purchases. The commission paid to us is based on a percentage of the premium paid by you.

Mutual funds do typically deduct sales charges from your investments in order to provide us with a commission as compensation for our services.

Commissions, sales charges or fees associated with your insurance and investment product purchases, if any, are specifically described in the prospectus and offering documents provided to you. Your Financial Advisor will explain these documents to you. You pay only for the products and services you decide to purchase. You do not have to purchase any insurance or investment products recommended to you if you desire not to.

Both First Command Financial Planning and your Financial Advisor share a portion of the commission from the investment or insurance company for any product you decide to purchase. Although there is an inherent potential conflict of interest in our acting as your investment adviser while receiving commissions as your broker-dealer and insurance agent, we will make every effort to assist you in selecting appropriate products to meet your needs and requirements. Our Financial Advisors have a fiduciary responsibility to make recommendations that are in your best interests.

You have the option to purchase the same products or similar products from other financial service entities, which may charge more or less than we do. Although we offer no investment products exclusive to First Command apart from the Core Investment Program and Select Investor Program, we do arrange proprietary terms with some of our insurance partners in the interests of our clients.

Other Compensation We Receive From Insurance Companies. In addition to commissions, we may be eligible for various forms of incentive compensation and other non-cash awards. Incentive compensation is based upon a variety of factors that may include level of premium written, retention, or other performance measures.
Other Compensation We Receive From Mutual Fund Companies. We receive additional revenue from distribution and revenue sharing agreements with mutual fund companies. Specifically, we receive the following additional compensation from some of the mutual funds we may recommend to you:

- 12b-1 Fees: Fees are charged by mutual fund companies to help offset costs associated with the sale and marketing of a mutual fund. Those fees are usually shared with the Broker/Dealers that offer those mutual funds. For the “A” shares of most mutual funds, we provide the 12b-1 fee is normally 0.25%, and First Command shares a portion of that with your Financial Advisor.

- Some mutual fund companies pay us other client servicing fees that range from 0.01% to 0.15% of net assets invested and/or funds sales. These fees are paid to us in support of the services, education and regulatory support we provide to you on behalf of the mutual funds. Currently, AIM, Fidelity Advisor, Pioneer and Franklin Templeton provide these fees to First Command. Similar arrangements may be established with additional mutual fund companies in the future. Your Financial Advisor does not receive a portion of these fees, and as such they are not a factor in deciding which funds your Financial Advisor recommends to you.

- Omnibus Record Keeping Fees are also paid to us in accordance with agreements between us and some mutual funds. Those fees, paid to us for the Core Investment Program and Select Investor Program accounts, reimburse First Command for the administrative costs of setting up and maintaining your accounts, thus relieving the mutual fund companies of this responsibility. Your Financial Advisor does not receive a portion of these fees, and as such they are not a factor in deciding which model portfolio your Financial Advisor recommends to you.

- Occasionally, one or more of our business partners may provide compensation to us for their participation in training and education sessions for our Advisors at companywide or regional meetings. They may also sponsor educational sessions we hold for our clients. This compensation is applied to the expenses of the event and is not based on any particular sales target nor is it paid to any of our Advisors.

First Command Bank Fees. First Command Bank will service the accounts that are introduced by your Financial Advisor. Fees for these accounts will be disclosed to you in writing at the beginning of your banking relationship in various disclosure documents. You should review the information provided to you carefully. First Command Bank will pay support fees to your Financial Advisor in recognition of his or her efforts to promote your banking relationship. The fees paid to your Financial Advisor will not affect the charges you pay or interest you pay or receive.

Commissions and Fees from Annuities. First Command receives a commission from the insurance company for the sale of an annuity. That commission is a percentage of the premiums you pay into the annuity and a portion is shared with your Advisor. For some annuities, First Command also receives a periodic payment from the insurance company based on the value of the account. We could be paid more for an investment into an annuity than for the same amount invested in a mutual fund.

Tax Preparation Fees. Tax preparation service fees are fully disclosed in the Client Tax Organizer. An hourly rate may also apply to special projects, but only after both parties have agreed to an initial cost estimate. Any compensation rewarded to your Financial Advisor for tax preparation participation will not affect the fees you, as a tax preparation client, are charged.

Additional Compensation. First Command Financial Planning receives no additional compensation for recommending products to you other than as stated in this brochure. First Command is compensated differently for each product you purchase. Our Financial Advisors receive a percentage of the compensation paid to First Command by our various business partners. This percentage will vary across product types such as mutual funds or annuities.

H. Code of Ethics

First Command Financial Planning has adopted a rigorous Code of Ethics that sets forth the high ethical standards of business conduct that we require of our employees and Advisors. Our Code includes applicable Federal Securities Laws, regulatory oversight, enforcement and recordkeeping provisions. A copy of our Code of Ethics is available to you upon written request to:

Vice President and Chief Compliance Officer
Attn: FCP Code of Ethics
1 FirstComm Plaza, Fort Worth, TX 76109-4999

I. Methods of Analysis, Sources of Information, and Investment Strategies

First Command employs the tenets of fundamental analysis and modern portfolio theory in choosing the investment products we recommend to you and evaluating performance.

The sources of information used include research materials prepared by organizations such as Morningstar, Inc. and the Investment Company Institute ("ICI"), financial periodicals, annual reports, prospectuses and the other documents created by the product issuers. We use the tools noted above in making our recommendations, but our recommendations are primarily built upon your goals and needs.

The recommendations generally have a long-term focus.

J. Participation or Interest in Client Transactions

First Command participates in many of the same securities that we also recommend to you for our corporate holdings and retirement plans maintained for our employees. In all instances, the positions First Command maintains are small enough to have no impact on the pricing or performance of the security.

K. Material Changes in Your Circumstances

We recommend that you inform your Financial Advisor immediately of any material changes that occur in your circumstances. Examples include a change in family status (birth, death, adoption, divorce, etc.), a change in your financial status (promotion, loss of job, disability, retirement, etc.) or a change in your investment objective or risk tolerance (graduation, mortgage pay-off, approaching retirement, etc.). Your Financial Advisor can help you make appropriate adjustments to your investments, insurance or banking products. We also recommend that you meet with your Financial Advisor at least annually to update the status of your goals, financial condition, attitudes, risk tolerance and planning horizon. As your personal financial information changes over time, you should ensure that your financial plan remains up to date.

L. Investment Brokerage Discretion

With the exception of accounts maintained by the Core Investment Program and Select Investor Program, First Command Financial Planning will not exercise any discretion over your investment accounts. This means that we have no authority to buy or sell any security without your specific authorization. All transactions are done or executed only with your prior approval.

M. Working with Other Professionals

From time to time, your Advisor may suggest and, with your written permission, work with other professionals (i.e., estate planners, accountants, attorneys, etc.) in the development and/or implementation of your financial plan or delivery of other services. Such professionals may charge fees which are separate from, and in addition to, fees charged by First Command Financial Planning, Inc. An Advisor’s suggestion of any other professionals to the client shall not constitute an endorsement of such other professionals by the Advisor or First Command. Clients engaging any such other professionals do so independently of the Advisor or First Command. Clients are solely responsible for all aspects of their relationship with any other professionals (including, but not limited to, independently interviewing, negotiating fee schedules, payment terms, hiring and firing, etc.).

N. Referral Arrangements
First Command Financial Planning, Inc. has an agreement in place with WiserAdvisor.com. WiserAdvisor.com is an independent matching service that is designed to help individuals find an Advisor in their area. First Command Financial Planning, Inc. pays a direct referral fee to WiserAdvisor.com for referrals of potential clients.

O. Information Regarding CFP® Certificant
The Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards, Inc. owns the certification marks CFP®, CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ and federally registered CFP (with flame design) in the U.S., which it awards to individuals who successfully complete CFP Board's initial and ongoing certification requirements. If your Financial Advisor is a CFP® certificant, he or she acknowledges his or her responsibility to adhere to the standards established in CFP Board's Standards of Professional Conduct, including the duty of care of a fiduciary, as defined by CFP Board. If you become aware that his or her conduct may violate the Standards, you may file a complaint with CFP Board at www.CFP.net/complaint.

II. FIRST COMMAND PRIVACY POLICY

Whether it’s on the Internet, in person, by telephone or by mail, we at First Command are committed to protecting your privacy. And you can rest assured that we will continue to safeguard to the extent possible your information.

The First Command Privacy Policy is designed to explain what type of information we collect, how it is used, and with whom and under what circumstances it will be shared. Current clients will receive a current copy of the First Command Privacy Policy on an annual basis. In addition, it is available at www.firstcommand.com or www.firstcommandbank.com. This notice replaces any previous notices provided to you by us about the privacy, security and protection of information. We may amend this notice at any time. We will inform you of changes as required by law.
D. Information Sharing Within The First Command Family of Companies
We are required to inform you of your rights to limit our ability to share information within our family of companies. Your rights are as follows:

• You may direct us not to share information about your creditworthiness received from you or others (such as information from your application or your employment or credit history) within our family of companies. However, even if you direct us not to share information about your creditworthiness, we may still share certain other information about you within our family of companies as permitted by law (such as your name, address, transactions or balances with us, or survey results).

The reason you share your information with a First Command Financial Advisor or other First Command representative is so that we may use your information to determine whether the investment, insurance and banking products and services we offer are a good fit for you and to provide you with recommendations and service for these products and services, generally as part of a comprehensive financial plan and related services. In order to accomplish your objective and provide the recommendations and services you request, your First Command Financial Advisor or other First Command representative may provide your information to First Command Financial Planning, Inc., First Command Financial Services, Inc. and/or First Command Bank and these entities will share your information with each other to ensure that recommendations and services provided consider your complete financial picture (as necessary) and complement each other. Should you choose to exercise your right to prohibit sharing of information among our family of companies, we may be unable to establish or continue a relationship with you as your choice may limit our ability to serve you in this manner.

For information purposes, financial planning and investment products and services are offered by First Command Financial Planning, Inc.; insurance products and services are offered by First Command Financial Services, Inc. (in certain states, First Command Financial Services, Inc. is a separate domestic corporation and does business in California as “First Command Insurance Services”); and banking products and services are offered by First Command Bank.

• You may also direct our companies not to market products or services to you based on information received from one of our other companies. This limitation, however, does not apply in certain circumstances permitted by law, such as if you already have a pre-existing relationship with the company desiring to market its products or services to you.

To inform us about your choices, you may write to the First Command Legal and Compliance Department, 1 FirstComm Plaza, Fort Worth, TX 76109-4999 or call 800-443-2104. Your decision will not expire until you revoke it in writing.

E. Protecting Medical and Health Information
We do not share any medical or health information with third parties or within the First Command Family of Companies, except as necessary to process transactions or services you have requested or initiated. For example, we may share medical or health information you have provided to us in connection with an insurance application with insurance companies to determine your eligibility or for underwriting purposes.

F. The Internet
Industry standard encryption and other security features safeguard our Web sites and any information you share with us through these Web sites. All information that we obtain about you through our use of our Web sites is protected and shared only as described in this notice. Use of our Web sites may result in “cookies” or similar files being placed on your hard drive for security purposes, to facilitate site navigation, to personalize your experience while visiting our site, and to enhance the overall effectiveness of the site. In all cases, cookies and similar files that we place on your computer do not contain any personal information unless encrypted and do not identify you as an individual or by account number.

Please remember that we will never ask you to provide sensitive information such as user IDs, passwords or account numbers via e-mail, unless encrypted. If you receive an e-mail request for this sort of information that is not encrypted, do not respond to it and contact us immediately.

We may provide links to non-First Command Web sites, such as credit bureaus or product providers. If you choose to link to Web sites not controlled by First Command, we are not responsible for the privacy or security of these Web sites, including the accuracy, completeness, reliability or suitability of their information. If you are asked to provide information on one of these Web sites we strongly urge you to carefully study their privacy policies before sharing your information.

G. First Command Family of Companies
The First Command Privacy Policy is provided to you by First Command Financial Services, Inc., and its wholly owned subsidiary companies that offer you various financial services:
First Command Bank
First Command Financial Planning, Inc.
First Command Financial Services (Hawaii)
First Command Financial Services (Montana)
First Command Financial Services (Nevada)
First Command Financial Services (New York)
First Command Financial Services (Wyoming)
First Command Life Insurance Company
First Command Services Corporation
First Command Europe Limited

H. Making Sure Your Information Is Accurate
You have the right to review the information we have collected about you to ensure that it is accurate and current. You can also request corrections to any personal information maintained by us.

To review the information we collect about you, submit a request in writing to the First Command Legal and Compliance Department, 1 FirstComm Plaza, Fort Worth, TX 76109-4999. You must describe the kind of information you want to review and include your full name, address, telephone number, and date of birth. Upon receipt of your request, we will contact you within 30 business days to describe what information is available for your review. We will not provide information that we feel is privileged.

To correct information about you, send a written request as described above, explaining your desired correction. Upon receipt of your request, we will contact you within 30 business days to inform you whether we will make the correction or tell you why we will not. We cannot correct consumer report information, such as your credit report. To do this, you must contact the consumer report agency that provided it.

I. Tips to Protect Your Information
First Command works hard to keep your information secure. You can help by following these tips to protect your information:

• Store personal information in a safe place, and tear up or shred old receipts and account statements before throwing them away.
• Protect your PINs and other passwords. Do not share them with anyone unless it’s for a service or transaction you request, and you are confident the other party will protect the information as you would.
• Carry the minimum amount of identifying information you require.
• Pay attention to billing cycles and statements. Inquire if you do not receive a bill.
• Check account statements carefully to ensure all charges, checks or withdrawals are authorized.
• Guard your mail from theft. Do not leave bill payment envelopes in your mailbox with the flag up. Instead, deposit them in a post office collection box or at the local post office. Promptly remove incoming mail.
• Order copies of your credit report from each of the three major credit bureaus once a year to ensure they are accurate.
• If you believe you are a victim of identity theft, take immediate action and keep records of your conversations and correspondence. While the steps you must take will vary with your individual circumstances, four basic actions are appropriate in almost every case:
  1. Contact the fraud departments of any one of the three major credit bureaus to place a fraud alert on your credit file:
        • Equifax (www.equifax.com):
          1-888-766-0008 / P.O. Box 740241, Atlanta, GA 30374
        • Experian (www.experian.com):
          1-888-397-3742 / P.O. Box 9532, Allen, TX 75013
        • Trans Union (www.transunion.com):
          1-800-680-7289 / P.O. Box 6790, Fullerton, CA 92834
  2. Contact the creditors for any accounts that have been tampered with or opened fraudulently.
  3. File a report with your local police, or the police in the community where the identity theft took place, and get a copy of the police report.

Complaints can be filed by phone, 1-877-IDTHEFT, or through the FTC’s

We hope this information has been helpful to you. If you have any questions about the privacy, security and protection of your information, you may contact us by writing to:
First Command Legal and Compliance Department
1 FirstComm Plaza, Fort Worth, TX 76109-4999.

III. OTHER IMPORTANT DISCLOSURES

A. Customer Identification Program Notice (“FINRA”)
The following important information is developed and copyrighted by FINRA and is supported by First Command Financial Planning, Inc., First Command Financial Services, Inc. and First Command Bank. We thank you for your understanding as our Advisors follow these procedures and hope that you will support us in our efforts to deny terrorist groups access to America’s financial system.

Important Information You Need to Know About Opening a New Account. To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, federal law requires financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each person who opens an account. This Notice answers some questions about your firm’s Customer Identification Program.

What types of information will I need to provide? When you open an account, your firm is required to collect information such as the following from you:
• Your Name
• Date of birth
• Address
• Identification Number:
  - U.S. Citizen: taxpayer identification number (social security number or employer identification number)
  - Non-U.S. Citizen: taxpayer identification number, passport number, and country of issuance, alien identification card number, or government-issued identification showing nationality, residence, and a photograph of you.

You will also need to show government-issued identification such as your driver’s license or other identifying document featuring your picture.

A corporation, partnership, trust or other legal entity may need to provide other information, such as its principal place of business, local office, employer identification number, certified articles of incorporation, government-issued business license, a partnership agreement, or a trust agreement.

U.S. Department of the Treasury, SEC, FINRA, and New York Stock Exchange rules already require you to provide most of this information.
These rules may also require you to provide additional information, such as your net worth, annual income, occupation, employment information, investment experience and objectives, and risk tolerance.

What happens if I do not provide the information requested or my identity cannot be verified? We may not be able to open an account or carry out transactions for you. If we have already opened an account for you, we may have to close it.

B. FINRA BrokerCheck
FINRA BrokerCheck provides you with an easy, free way to learn about the professional background, business practices, and conduct of FINRA-registered firms and their brokers. FINRA BrokerCheck is designed to be simple and efficient in its delivery of information. FINRA makes information on securities professionals and firms available online and, in most cases, detailed report information is returned to you by email within minutes of your request.

To request information under this program, visit the FINRA Web site at www.finra.org or call 1-800-289-9999 to request the FINRA BrokerCheck Brochure describing the information available through FINRA BrokerCheck.

C. Business Recovery Notice
As an integral element of your financial success, we have considered at length possible serious situations which could disrupt our business and your ability to avail yourself of our services or gain access to your accounts. We have considered scenarios ranging from the interruption of local utility service (power, water, telephone, etc.) to damage to one or more buildings on our campus, to disruptions that involve our entire business district or city and large-scale regional disruptions.

We will keep our contingency and business continuity plans current and effective, and will address material changes as they occur. Our plan will be formally reviewed annually. The plans outlined here are based on estimates and assumptions about possible future occurrences. The actual events may dictate some modification and, depending upon the event, substantial modification may be required. In any case, we will make every effort to ensure continued service to you.

Investment Accounts. Because we do not physically possess your funds or securities, clients who are unable to contact First Command’s headquarters should attempt to contact their Financial Advisor for information. Those unable to establish contact with either may contact the individual fund companies directly by consulting the company Web sites or the toll-free number referenced on your confirmation statements.

For queries regarding the Core Investment Program or Select Investor Program, please contact your Financial Advisor or our Home Office. If you are not able to reach your Financial Advisor or our headquarters, please use the following information to contact the First Command Bank Trust Department:

Contacting FCB
For those First Command Bank clients that also have First Command Financial Planning products, you can direct that First Command Bank notify First Command Financial Planning of your new address, as well. As a necessary measure of security, First Command will verify your identity prior to any request to update your address of record.

G. Additional Rights We Reserve
In addition to the rights expressly stated in this Description of Services brochure and/or in your advisory agreement with First Command Financial Planning, Inc., First Command Financial Planning, Inc. and its affiliated and parent companies (together “First Command,” “we,” “our” or “us”) reserve the right to: (1) freeze any account or policy held through us and/or suspend any services when we have received reasonable notice of a dispute regarding the account, policy or service, including but not limited to notice of a dispute between the registered or beneficial account owners or when we reasonably believe a fraudulent transaction may occur or has occurred; (2) freeze any account or policy held through us and/or suspend services upon initial notification to us of the death or incapacity of the owner until we receive required documentation in good order; (3) set off the funds in any of your accounts held through us against any due and payable debt you owe us now or in the future without your permission to do so and when permitted by law; and/or (4) terminate our relationship with you, including but not limited to resigning as the broker-dealer for your account or agent for your policy without your permission to do so, in cases of abusive or threatening conduct, or suspicious, fraudulent or illegal activity. These actions may be taken at our sole discretion.
IV. INVESTMENT ADVISORY AGREEMENT

First Command Financial Planning, Inc. (“First Command,” “We” or “Us”) is a Registered Investment Adviser. Client (“Client” or “You”) has requested investment advisory or financial planning services from First Command. First Command will service Client’s needs through its investment advisor representatives (“Advisor” or “Advisors”). First Command, Client and Advisor may individually be referred to as a “Party.”

This Agreement (“Agreement” or “IAA”) explains how First Command and its Advisor or Advisors will provide financial planning and other investment advisory services to You.

First Command and Client agree:

A. Disclosure: We will explain who We are and our services and products
You have received a copy of First Command’s disclosure brochure called the Description of Services (“DoS”). The DoS tells You about First Command and its products and services. It is important to Us that You have the opportunity to ask Your advisor questions relating to First Command and its products and services.

You have the right to terminate this Agreement within five (5) business days after You have signed it. In the event You decide to terminate this Agreement within five (5) business days after signing it, fees for financial planning services paid by You under this Agreement will be refunded.

Note: First Command will not charge any fee if You terminate this Agreement within five (5) business days of signature and We will return all planning fees. However, if You purchase securities prior to termination it will result in sales charges or commissions, redemption or other fees upon cancellation of the purchase and possible changes in the investment’s market position, either positively or negatively, all of which shall be Your sole responsibility.

B. How We will serve You; our Financial Planning Services
We will provide financial planning or other investment advisory services to You. This may include writing a comprehensive financial plan. We will ask You to provide information and financial data (“information”). It is important that the information You give to the Advisor is complete and accurate in all respects. A financial plan and/or other recommendations will be prepared based on the information You provide on the questionnaires, documents and developed in interviews with the Advisor. A Financial plan will address your current financial circumstances and goals, and may include recommendations to address the goals through wealth accumulation and management (investments) and cash management (banking services). We may also give You suggestions to manage risk (insurance). Although You may receive a financial plan, We will not provide continuous monitoring of your financial situation or specific accounts.

In the event your circumstances change in any manner that You believe to be material or significant, You should call or write Us and explain the change. A material change is one of real consequence for your financial situation and is essential for Us to know and consider in providing guidance on important matters for You.

If You purchase a Full Service Level Plan described below, We will provide to You for a twelve (12) month period beginning with the date of this Agreement (the “Service Period”) the following Tailored Professional Services, based on the Advisor’s judgment as to your needs.

1. Reasonable personal or telephone access to the Advisor for continued financial advice.

2. A comprehensive financial plan that may include cash management (banking) and wealth accumulation and management (investments). We may also make suggestions to manage risk issues (insurance). We will provide plan updates within the selected level of service.

3. Full access to First Command’s Web features, as well as reviewing My Financial Journey™ with your Advisor during appointments.

4. Two comprehensive financial reviews or “progress meetings” with your Advisor within the Service Period.

5. Income Tax Preparation Services and “cost basis calculations” through First Command Tax Services at a reduced rate for the Service Period.

6. When appropriate, and with your consent as explained in paragraph ‘9,’ below, bringing together other professionals into a “deliverables team” to provide more complete service. This may include a CPA/accountant or tax analyst, estate planner or attorney, real estate specialist and financial product specialists. Note: the fees paid under this Agreement will not cover the other professionals on the deliverables team who will bill separately for their services.

C. The Levels of Service You may Select
First Command offers several levels of service for financial plans. These range from the standard but complete Gold level to the much more complex Platinum Premium level. The levels are described below. You should consult closely with your First Command Advisor to determine the appropriate service level for your circumstances. The fee charged is based on the nature of the client’s circumstances, the complexity of the planning (including the necessity of discussions with other professionals) and the time required to create and implement the plan, as well as the other services over the twelve month period. A listing of the costs for the various levels is included in “The Full Service Level Plans” below. A level of service is purchased for twelve (12) months. Renewal fees and your rights and options if You are a current First Command client are discussed below (see “Fees for Existing Clients”).

Finally, a list of stand-alone, or a la carte financial planning services, that may be purchased outside of a full service level plan and the cost of each such stand-alone service are included at the end. This listing of a la carte planning services also describes the relationship of the stand-alone services to the comprehensive services bundled in the full service level plans.

1. The Full Service Level Plans:
   - First Command Gold
     This level is for middle income clients in the asset accumulation or retirement phase of their financial life and includes survivor plans. The plan describes your complete financial goals and may provide comprehensive recommendations for cash and wealth accumulation and management and our suggestions for insurance products to manage risk. This plan may also include basic retirement income and estate planning services.

   - First Command Platinum
     This level includes all features of the First Command Gold plus comprehensive planning for high net worth individuals in the asset accumulation phase of their financial life; giving consideration to survivor plans for these clients. High net worth Clients have more than $150,000 in annual income or investable liquid assets greater than $250,000. Platinum Client services provide introductory estate planning and may include recommendations for asset management accounts through First Command’s Core Investment Program and Select Investor Program and trust services. A person who is eligible for and selects participation in the Core Investment Program and Select Investor Program must review and sign separate paperwork including an Investment Management Agreement.

- First Command Platinum Premium
  This level includes all features of the First Command Platinum plus comprehensive retirement income and estate transfer plans for high net worth clients. This plan may include portfolio management, asset transfer planning, trust planning, trust management, gifting, charitable giving, generation skipping planning and IRA beneficiary planning. This level is appropriate for individuals moving into ultimate retirement or who need to begin retirement income or comprehensive estate planning.

2. Explanation of Financial Planning Fees:
The cost for planning and advisory services is for Wealth Accumulation and Management (investments) and Cash Management (banking) only. No part of the cost covers or relates to insurance, although insurance options may be included in a written plan. Insurance products and services are compensated through insurance commissions only.

If You buy a Full Service Level program and subsequently desire a higher service level (for example, increasing from Gold to Platinum), You may at any time during the Service Period discuss with your Advisor the advisability and benefit, if any under your circumstances, of moving to a different level. Your Advisor will calculate and explain the additional fee for the expanded services, giving you credit for the prior level of service fee already paid. If after conferring with your Advisor You move to an upgraded level and no additional fee is assessed, the twelve month Service Period will continue without change. In the event a fee is assessed at the time You move to an upgraded level, then a new Service Period will begin.

After the initial twelve (12) month Service Period You may continue the full service relationship with First Command for each subsequent twelve (12) month Service Period upon payment of a renewal fee based on the complexity of your financial situation and your Advisor’s expectations regarding the amount of effort needed to keep the financial plan up to date. The renewal must be paid not later than ninety (90) days from the end of the prior twelve month period (the initial period begins at the date of the Agreement). If You do not renew, We will continue to provide service on your existing products, but no additional financial planning or advisory services will be conducted unless You purchase a new Full Service period or a stand-alone, a la carte, service.

Service on existing products would include:
- Discussions of product features and functions;
- Servicing the products, such as re-registrations, change in beneficiaries, claims service, complaints, death or divorce;
- Payment management assistance; and
- Web access to Command Center

Service on existing products would not include:
- Periodic financial reviews;
- Access to an Advisor other than for servicing of products;
- Access to My Financial Journey; and
- Updated investment advice

3. Fee Schedule for Full Service Level Plans:

The financial planning fee You pay to First Command is for the training, experience and judgment used in providing the advisory services and in creating your financial plan. You may also pay commissions and/or management or service fees for products or services described in the financial plan and purchased by You. You are not obligated to purchase any products or services recommended by First Command or your Advisor and will only incur fees, commissions or sales charges for the products purchased.

4. Fees for Existing Clients:
We will continue to honor our obligations under current Investment Advisory Agreements with existing clients. As such, if You do not wish to purchase a Full Service Level Plan described above, and You signed in the past an Investment Advisory Agreement with First Command that remains in force, You will continue to receive financial planning services in the same or a comparable manner at the fee structure in your existing IAA. Should You choose to purchase one of the Full Service Level Plans described above, You must sign this new Investment Advisory Agreement replacing the prior IAA and pay any new fees described.

You must also sign this IAA if you want additional services under your prior plan (which does not include any of the Tailored Professional Services described in this IAA) or services for your existing securities products, but have not previously signed an IAA with First Command. In these situations the fees described in this IAA will not be charged to you.

If You became a financial planning client and paid a planning fee, but have not yet received a written Financial Plan, you may still receive your agreed upon Plan without payment of the fees described in this Agreement. Alternatively, You may elect to receive the expanded "Tailored Professional Services" described above in which event you will receive a credit in the amount previously paid for the financial planning services toward the purchase of one of the personal Full Service Level Plans described above. Fees paid for a la carte service purchases will not be eligible for a credit towards Full Service Level Plans. If You are a business planning client You will not receive a credit toward one of the personal plans described above as the business plan is a distinct service that is separate from the personal plans.

Existing Core Investment Program and Select Investor Program Clients will continue to receive service under the terms and conditions of their existing IAA and Investment Management Agreement ("IMA"). Existing Clients who move into the Core Investment Program and Select Investor Program must sign this IAA only if they have not previously signed an IAA, and the services and fees described in Sections ‘2’ and ‘3’ will not be charged to the Client unless a Tailored Professional Service Level Plan as described above is specifically requested by the Client. Persons who become new clients of First Command on and after March 1, 2008, and are eligible and elect to enter the Core Investment Program or Select Investor Program are subject to the initial and renewal Financial Planning fees described in this IAA in addition to management fees under the IMA.

5. Purchase of Individual or a la carte Advisory Services
You may buy individual financial planning services outside of a full service level program. These a la carte planning services are listed in attached "Schedule A," and consist of:

A. A written analysis and recommendation related to the individual planning service selected by the client.
B. Service to existing investment, banking or insurance products including:
- Discussion and explanation of product features;
- Servicing of products (registrations, adding or changing beneficiaries, claims service, aid in resolving changes resulting from death or divorce);
- Payment management;
- Web site access to Command Center;
- Online access to product calculators; and
- Updated needs analysis for insurance products.

The purchase of individual planning services does not include:
- Annual financial reviews;
- Access to a Financial Advisor except for product servicing; or
- Updated financial planning or investment advice.

Foundations Plan
The Foundations Plan is an assessment offered as a one-time “a la carte” service. It differs from other a la carte services in that it is a bundle of assessments that form a basic but complete and integrated plan. The Foundations Plan is intended for those clients who are just beginning to plan for their financial future and will include an analysis of financial goals and risks, and may provide recommendations for wealth accumulation and management (investments), cash management (banking), and risk management (insurance). As with other a la carte services, the Foundations Plan does not include ongoing service for 12 months (i.e., updated financial planning or investment advice, plan progress meetings, access to a Financial Advisor except for product servicing, etc.), discount for First Command Tax Services and other services which are applicable to clients who purchase First Command Gold, Platinum or Platinum Premium Services. The fee for a Foundations Plan will range from $300 to $750. The fee is negotiable and will be dependent on the complexity of your financial situation. The fee for a Foundations Plan may not be used as a credit towards First Command Gold, Platinum or Platinum Premium Services.

Note: A financial plan is a comprehensive statement of a client’s individual and family financial status and economic goals, with recommendations to work toward the goals considering the current and future means available in light of the client’s risk tolerance. The client’s aims and means in one economic area are balanced against the goals in other areas to seek an integrated whole. With the exception of the Foundations Plan, that is not the case with purchase of the stand-alone or a la carte planning services listed above, which do not represent, and are not intended to be, a financial plan. Clients are cautioned that a recommendation for an individual planning service in one area stands alone, and is based only on the information related to the specific service purchased. The recommendation for the selected financial area or service may, in a given case, be different in the context of a full financial plan that considers all components of the client’s individual and family status and prioritized goals. In choosing a stand-alone or a la carte planning service, rather than a full and integrated financial plan considering all factors, a client assumes the risk that the most appropriate recommendation may not be achieved.

D. We will not have Custody of your Assets; We will only act at your Direction
Neither First Command nor Advisor will hold or have custody of your assets, accounts or securities. We will not have any discretionary authority over your assets.

E. Limited Advisory Services without a Financial Plan
We believe providing You with a complete financial plan is the best way to serve You. In certain instances, We may provide investment advisory services to clients without providing a financial plan and without charging a fee for advisory services. Such services may include debt reduction recommendations, setting up appropriate savings programs through banking products, insurance and investments.

F. We can rely on your Authority to Act
You have the legal ability to enter into this Agreement and it is valid and binding. If You are acting on behalf of a corporation, limited liability company or partnership including a charitable organization such as a church (collectively “your company”), You state that your company has given You the authority to act. If We ask, You agree to provide other papers to prove your authority to act.

G. How long does this Agreement Last?
This Agreement will continue unless cancelled by either You or First Command upon thirty (30) days written notice sent by one to the other.

H. We can use affiliated companies and other providers of services to help You
First Command is a subsidiary, or part, of First Command Financial Services, Inc. (“FCFS”) and exchanges services with FCFS. First Command also exchanges services with First Command Bank, another subsidiary of FCFS. You authorize us to use corporations affiliated with First Command (an “Affiliated Company”) to help Us provide financial planning services to You. This may include insurance and banking services that You request. The Affiliated Company will be paid for providing this help. So that we may provide reasonable services to You, We will share with Affiliated Companies any information We have or may obtain about You. We will also hire any nonaffiliated companies (“Providers”) to help Us serve your needs. This will include certain banks, insurance companies, mutual fund companies, transfer agents and directly related businesses.

I. We do not provide legal or tax advice; First Command Tax Services Except as stated below, First Command and Advisor will not provide You with legal or tax advice. You should seek the assistance of an attorney, CPA or other tax professional regarding the legal and/or tax ramifications of implementing the recommendations contained in your financial plan. At your request We will assist You in securing legal, tax or other professional services provided by independent professionals, including the members of the deliverables team. The choice of which legal, tax or other expert to select is your decision. The recommendation to You of an attorney, CPA or other professional does not constitute an endorsement of the professional by Advisor or First Command. Your engagement of any professional is independent of Advisor or First Command. Since neither First Command nor Advisor control your interaction with the other professionals, You are solely responsible for all aspects of your relationship with any other professionals (including, but not limited to, independently interviewing, negotiating fee schedules, providing direction, payment terms, hiring and firing, etc.), and You agree that First Command is not responsible for your decisions or liable for the results. First Command and Advisor will work in collaboration with your legal and tax professionals. At your request, First Command will assist you in securing services from First Command Tax Services.

J. If We do what You tell us to, we are not responsible for the results; Indemnity if We follow your directions
First Command and the Advisor will not be liable to You for what We do or fail to do if done in good faith in reliance on the information You have given or your instructions to Us. You agree that You will indemnify, or compensate, Us and the Advisor for losses, costs, damages, or expenses suffered, including reasonable attorneys’ fees, that result solely from any action We take based on your instructions to Us or the Advisor in preparing a financial plan and purchasing at your direction products described in the plan. These limitations on our liability do not relieve Us or the Advisor from our responsibility or liability to You that may exist under state or federal law.
K. Transfer (Assignment)
Neither You nor First Command may assign or transfer this Agreement or any part of it unless there is written consent by the Party that is not attempting to transfer it.

L. Your Privacy
All of your private information that is collected as part of this Agreement, called nonpublic personal information, and all recommendations or suggestions will remain confidential. We will share your nonpublic personal information only with Affiliated Companies and Providers that give direct service to Us on your behalf, and only as permitted by law. We will use commercially reasonable efforts to have all Providers agree to protect your nonpublic personal information. For more information about our privacy practices, you may review the First Command Privacy Policy which is contained in the DoS.

M. Anti-Money Laundering Representations
Fighting terrorism and illegal activity is the responsibility of all persons. The evidence of identity and all related information You have provided in connection with this Agreement must be true and correct. You must provide any information deemed necessary by Us in our sole discretion to comply with the U.S.A. Patriot Act, the First Command anti-money laundering program and related responsibilities. In the event of delay or failure by You to produce any information requested in this Agreement or required for verification purposes, We may refuse to act.

You represent that neither You, nor any person controlling, controlled by, or under common control with You, nor any person having a beneficial interest in You or any company You represent related to this Agreement, is an individual, organization, or entity listed on the List of Specially Designated Nationals and Blocked Persons (the “OFAC Control List”) maintained by the U. S. Office of Foreign Assets Control ("OFAC") (available at http://wwwustreas.gov/ofac/11sdsn.pdf), and that You are not investing and will not invest on behalf of or for the benefit of any individual, organization, or entity listed on the OFAC Control List.

N. Texas Law controls this Agreement
This Agreement is governed by the laws of the State of Texas, U.S.A., without regard to Texas conflict of laws rules, and shall remain in full force and effect unless terminated as stated in Section ‘7’ of this Agreement. This Agreement is binding upon the persons that come to control your interests and those persons to whom You transfer this Agreement with our consent.

O. Amendments or Changes to this Agreement
This Agreement may be amended or changed if We give You written notice of a change. Any such changes may only be done under applicable law and shall only be effective thirty (30) days after We mail written notice to You by first class mail to your last known address of record.

P. Failure to enforce this Agreement does not prevent future enforcement
If We do not enforce a part of this Agreement in a given instance, that does not prevent Us from enforcing the same or another part in the future.

Q. Investments are subject to the risks of the marketplace; Limitation on our Liability Investments that You decide to make are subject to risks associated with investing in securities, including various market, currency, economic, political and business risks. We do not guarantee the performance of your investments or guarantee that our investment advice or strategies or that of any Advisor will be successful or that your investment objectives will be met. Investment advice or financial planning recommendations provided by Us or any Advisor are largely a matter of professional judgment, and neither We nor any Advisor with whom You have worked shall be liable for performance or non-performance of any investment advice or recommended investment made in good faith and with reasonable care.

R. What if there is a dispute between You and First Command?
We will attempt to settle a dispute between You and First Command or a complaint You have relating to this Agreement by working closely with You. If You are not satisfied with our efforts, disputes or complaints will be referred to mandatory mediation under the Commercial Mediation Procedures of the American Arbitration Association. The mediation will be non-binding. If either You or First Command do not accept the result of the mediation there may be agreement for binding arbitration. Where there is no agreement to arbitrate the dispute, either You or First Command will be free to pursue any remedy to settle the dispute or complaint including a law suit. No part of this dispute resolution paragraph is intended to diminish your rights under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 or the law of your state of residence.

S. This IAA states all of the agreements between You and First Command
This Agreement states all of the matters upon which You and First Command have agreed. If a subject is not covered in writing in this Agreement then as between You and First Command it does not exist.

This Agreement shall not become effective until both First Command and Client agree to its terms and conditions in writing.

By signing below, First Command agrees to the terms and conditions of this Agreement.
